Dear Rightfully Worried Investor,

Despite what that popular TV commercial claims, what happens in Vegas does not have to stay in Vegas, because we filmed it all - LIVE!

At the recently concluded Las Vegas Money Show, we've filmed over three hours worth of startling live-action market and economic analysis.

“We now stand at a critical crossroad in our history. To the left, a hyper-inflationary explosion. To the right, a catastrophic deflationary collapse. Depending on which road the economy and Fed takes us, fortunes will be made ... or lost.”

-- Martin Weiss, Editor-in-Chief, Safe Money Report

Excerpted from a closed-door session of the recently concluded Las Vegas Money Show

Also recorded were specific and targeted investment recommendations, all of which can protect your portfolio from a highly probable U.S. economic meltdown ... while at the same time dramatically increasing your net worth!

Peek Through the Key Hole and Literally See for Yourself

Three of Wall Street's highly acclaimed analysts, Martin Weiss, PhD., Sean Broderick and Michael Larson, live and on camera, deliver compelling predictions of where the U.S economy is headed.

(Insert Sidebar #1)

And they'll back it all up with persuasive proof you'll have to see to believe.

Every telling inflection of voice, every raised eyebrow, will show the passion, and the worry, of both the presenters and the audience.

Did you know that even though the economy is booming, and unemployment stands at 4.6% - we still can't balance the budget, and now we're on track for a historic $300 billion deficit!

See the Coming of Real Estate's "Perfect Storm!"

- Home sales in Phoenix are down 46%, Minneapolis-St. Paul down 28%, San Diego down 31%, and in Florida as a whole, down 30%.
- Foreclosures have already jumped 78% nationally.
- And $2 trillion in adjustable rate mortgages will hit their "adjustment dates" within the next 18 months - jumping 30% to 50%. For borrowers who couldn't afford the payments on a fixed rate mortgage when rates were at their generational lows - this is a disaster waiting to happen!

Why Should You As an Investor Care?

Because as much as 43% of all new jobs added since 2001 were due to the housing boom.

Because consumer spending constitutes 70% of GDP, and if unemployment rises - and consumer spending declines by a mere 10%, the government would deficit spend about $1 trillion in a single year to make up the difference!

And then the economy stalls, because people don't buy and businesses don't sell - and the stock market teeters, and crashes.

But Here's the Silver, er, Gold Lining!

All outlined in explicit detail on these amazing, full-color, 3-plus hour DVDs.

Just slip these DVDs into your home DVD player, then sit back, put up your feet, pop open a bag of popcorn and celebrate, because...

"We're in the early stages of a commodity bull market - a bull market that could continue for another 10 years!"

-- Sean Brodrick, Editor, Red-Hot Canadian Small-Caps

Excerpted from the recorded session of The Las Vegas Money Show

Everyone knows commodity demand in China is over-whelming.

- China's oil imports were up 25% in the first quarter alone! Yet ¼ of China is still not on the national energy grid!
- They're building a city the size of Boston EVERY TWO YEARS! - and gobbling up 40% of the world's cement!
- They want to quadruple their gold reserve - yet worldwide gold mining can barely meet current demand.
- They also need massive infusions of copper, zinc, steel and uranium, too!

- And then, there's India - the second most populous nation in the world - also with a rapidly expanding economy and increasingly ravenous demands.

All of this is GREAT NEWS for investors like you!

Side Bar #2

Germany in the 1920's: After WWI, Germany couldn't print money fast enough to keep ahead of accelerating deflation. Then, as the German Mark fell, and the cost of goods and services rose, the German economy collapsed as businesses no longer accepted Marks as a form of payment.

The U.S. in the 1930's: After the collapse of the real estate and stock bubbles of the 20's, banks, credit markets and businesses began to collapse. Then a vicious cycle of job losses began, leading to even less earning power, leading to more business failures and even more job losses - culminating in The Great Depression.
